Week of February 4 to 8

What should you be working on this week?

DEADLINE DATE ALERT—"PROJECT OUTLINE"
DUE ON MONDAY!!! YOUR ROUGH DRAFT IS DUE NEXT WEEK TOO! REMEMBER: A ROUGH DRAFT IS THE FIRST FINISHED DRAFT—IT HAS TO LOOK GOOD!

Holy Cow! February is alrady here? You need to have your project FINISHED very soon! The Outline is your project organizer. Do a good job with it and you'll see that it quickly becomes a Rough Draft. The Rough Draft and organizer are meant to be your final project. Will there be more to do? Yes, much more. But the more you put into the outline and rough draft, the nicer your final project will be AND the more you'll be able to pace yourself and do a good job over the next month.

Let's chat about that Rough Draft...It must look good. It must look finished. You should have had a few people look it over (parents, teacher, friends, experts) and give you some advice. You should have a plan/idea of what you are going to fix for the final draft. Does your project comply with all the History Day rules? Does your project look good and read good? Does it show historical context? Does it show analysis? Does it go beyond just telling information and actually interpreting events? A Rough Draft can be easy but a good rough draft is tough! Remember this, a rough draft is a FINISHED draft. It's not in pieces, it's FINISHED with a few technical things to fix, update, tweak, etc.

Don't stress out. Relax. If you are confused or stressed please talk with your teacher right away. You don't need to feel that way if you've been doing everything you are supposed to. A little bit of feeling like that is good, in fact it's part of the learning process. But if it's overwhelming, or seems overwhelming, talk with somebody who can help you get a good perspective on what to do!

GUESS WHAT? This is the last week you'll have to keep track of your time. From here on out it's all about your rough draft and the final project. Congratulations on making it this far and good luck on the final stretch of your journey. You've come a long way, accomplished much, learned more and have a ways yet to go so keep going and know that there are a lot of people who are proud of you!

The FINAL PROJECT DUE DATE is Wednesday, February 27. JUDGING commences the very next day. You MUST be ready to be judged on this date. Make sure you understand everything that you need to have finished by this date! You'll do a great job. When it comes down to judges, smile, share your learning and expertise, and be confident that you are one of the leading experts in the community on your topic.....because, really, you are!

There are many more people who don't know as much as you do about this topic.

Share your knowledge with them.
