Convicted of Riot which was in connection with the lynching of two negroes at Duluth, Minn. These negroes were alleged to have assaulted a white girl and were placed in jail. A mob formed and the negroes were taken from the jail and lynched.

Louis Dondino and Carl Hammerberg.

No record of previous convictions. Had been steadily employed and at the time of arrest was employed as truck driver for Bloom & Company. Do not as yet have many letters relative to his past life but what information we have is to the effect that he was industrious and had no trouble up to this time.

Single. Mother dead. Father living at Duquette, Minn. Three brothers living at Duluth, one now at Moose Lake, Minn. Five sisters all married and living in different parts of the state.

Second grade.

Conduct and disposition uniformly good.

Has not been here sufficient length of time to become eligible for parole. Will be eligible in February 1922. Have no recommendations to make.
