Mr. Sullivan,
Regarding Louis
Dondino, my brother. I have done as you advised me, and talked with attorney Lammers from West Duluth. He had a talk with assistant district attorney Mr. Forbes about Louis. Forbes said he was outrel on Louis's case, and would leave that to the board to decide. If the board would decide to set him free, he would be satisfied.

I was talking to Mr.
Lanners last Tuesday and he would have a talk to the judge, and he was sure he would get the same answer from him.
I made a trip to Duluth some time ago, and had a talk with some of Louis' friends, business men, and they promised me they would write you a letter regarding Louis, now I don't know if they wrote you or not I have done all I can do I am sure. My father and mother are both old people, as you know, and, Louis being where he is, is sure telling on the old people. He knows he is used fine, as every letter we get from him, he says, don't worry about me, for I am all right. But it is thinking he is a prisoner, for we are five brothers in.

our family, and not one of us, ever was ⁱⁿ a jail before. Mr. Sullivan if you will write me a letter, what the good news is,
the old people and myself will feel better, I am sure.
We are all thankful to you for what you have done, and for using Louis as good as you have.

Yours Truly
Elza Dondino
