PERMANENT ADDRESS AND
WINTER QUARTERS
PERU, IND.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your letter regarding Max Mason will say that he had been in our employ for quite a little while and while here was always ready and willing to obey orders, kept his place and his morals and general character and habits about the average.

We will appreciate anything that you may do for him to gain his release and will be pleased to re-employ him should he be released from the institution.

Respectfully Yours.
